

GLEN OAKS COMMUNITY COLLEGE FOUNDATION

JOSLIN MEMORIAL ART SCHOLARSHIP

(Endowed)

Background:

The Joslin Memorial Art Scholarship is being established by Burr and Elizabeth Joslin in memory of Burr's parents Marion Wakefield and F. Burr Joslin, who were, respectively, a fashion artist, and a residential architect.

The Joslin Memorial Art Scholarship is established to recognize exceptional Glen Oaks Community College students pursuing an Art Degree. The scholarship is to be awarded to talented students committed to art who plan to finish a two year degree at Glen Oaks and to complete a four year degree elsewhere.

The effect of this scholarship, in addition to functioning as a strong incentive for and a prestigious acknowledgement of excellence in art, would be to raise the rate of retention for talented art majors by providing a strong and appealing reason for remaining at Glen Oaks Community College.

The Scholarship will serve to honor and substantially reward each year's recipients and to significantly enhance and embellish the Glen Oaks Community College art program as a recruitment and retention tool.

The donor initiated this award in February 1994. This fund was initially established as an award and not endowed. In August of 2002 the Award was reestablished as a Scholarship, as it is now documented.

The fund is now endowed and monies will be held in a restricted endowed account. Distribution shall begin in the 2003/04 school years, until that time the Marion Wakefield and F. Burr Joslin Memorial Art Award will be given.

Whenever it appears that changing conditions make this plan no longer applicable, practical, or suited to the general purposes stated above, the College Foundation will confer with the donor or their representative to secure a modification of the plan. If the Foundation is unable to locate the donor or their representative after reasonable efforts, then the Foundation is authorized to utilize the fund for any other suitable educational purpose, so that the fund will provide the maximum service to the community through the advancement of higher education.
